

Auction Block Claims Used County Vehicles

If you're looking for a bargain in a used car, try the County's vehicle auction Saturday. Bidding on surplus county autos and construction equipment will get under way at 1 p.m. at the Road Department Central Yard, 1636 Eastlake Ave.

More than $300,000 in tax offsetting revenue has been realized from auction of surplus vehicles in past years.

THE AUCTION method, which replaced the old system of selling in lots by sealed bids, was initiated in 1954 at the insistence of Supervisor Kenneth Hahn.

Pointing out that 95 per cent of the County's used vehicles were purchased by dealers under the bid system, Hahn stressed that an auction would give the general public — as well as dealers — a chance to purchase the vehicles.

PUBLIC reception of the reports county purchasing agent Fred Calin. He says a conservative estimate of county revenue gained by the auctions is $300,000.

Highest bidders are required to post a 25 per cent deposit on their vehicles the day of the sale. The purchaser has seven days to remit the balance.

In addition to the autos that will be up for sale, several types of construction equipment will also be on the block. Included are street sweepers, tractors, cement mixers, motor graders, road rollers, welding machines, and pneumatic hand diggers.

Garden Checklist

1. Brown spots in a lawn may indicate trouble from lawn moths. Consult your nurseryman for best control.
2. Chrysanthemums in bloom will give a quick shot of color to vacation-neglected gardens.
3. Water lawns deeply. You can check water penetration by running a probe into the lawn, checking to see how much of it comes up dry. Compact areas should be spiked to provide better penetration. Mow a little higher during hot weather.
4. Many bedding plants, including dwarf dahlias, petunias, zinnias, and others, are available for late summer and fall color.
5. Feed and water fuchsias frequently and keep fading blooms picked off to insure continued color.

Cast Party Set Saturday

The Hampton Players Little Theater group will hold a summer party Saturday at Higgins Patio. More than 100 members and guests will be in attendance, including the cast of the comedy, "Lullaby," following the final performance.

The church's pastor, the Rev. Earl Leonard, and Mrs. Leonard have been attending Junior Camp at Barton Flats this week. They expect to return in time for the Sunday conference.

His special instrument, a Free Bassetti accordion with two speakers and stereo sound, was made in this country.

In charge of arrangements for the "come as you are" party are Hal Douglas and Lucille Gillispie. The refreshment committee includes Mr. and Mrs. Hal Lepper, Mr. and Mrs. Mac Perdue, Thelma Carpenter, and Gerry Billinghurst. Decorations will be by Lyle Smith and Marc La Roque.

Hampton president is Dorothy Tunis of Hollywood Riviera.

Missionary Conference Set Sunday

A special Missionary Conference is planned for Sunday at the Lomita Missionary Church, 2043 Lomita Blvd., Lomita.

Milton Wong, national superintendent of the Missionary Youth Fellowship, will speak at the Sunday School hour. He comes from missionary headquarters in Fort Wayne, Ind.

Present to offer his personal greetings to the gathering will be the Rev. William Cox, former pastor of the local church. Honored guests will include both Mrs. Wong and Mrs. Cox.

In the Morning Worship Hour, the Rev. Mr. Mouw ("Mr. Missions") will bring the Missionary Challenge. The Rev. Mr. Mouw was the first missionary of the Christian and Missionary Alliance to Borneo. He will discuss "The Wild Men of Borneo," and will also give the evening message at 7.

"I always ask for FOUR quarts... It seems like more than ONE gallon!"

TOUCHE... Instructor Lyle "Jeep" LaMont shows Joan Lawson a fencing maneuver during classes conducted by LaMont at North High School. The classes meet each Wednesday evening at the North High gym. Sponsored by the Torrance Recreation Department, the fencing classes are part of a full scope of activities provided during the summer months.

Baptist Home Dinner Set To Honor Men

Children's Baptist Home in Inglewood will be host Monday evening at a barbecue dinner for the combined American Baptist Men's Fellowships of Southern California.

Guests will include members of the Men's Fellowship of Calvary Baptist Church, 2818 Manhattan Beach Blvd., who plan to leave as a group from the local church at 5:30 p.m.

Activities will include swimming and other recreation, tours of the facilities, and a program of special interest to Christian men.

Laymen's Crusade Charter Members Set Meet Friday

Pastors and laymen throughout the Southland are urged to attend the business meeting of the Southern California Laymen's Crusade if they are interested in becoming "charter members."

The session will be held Friday evening at 7:30 at the North Long Beach Brethren Church, 61st Street and Orange Avenue.

Officers will be installed and each layman assigned to a committee.

At the last meeting, the Crusade accepted a four-point program: citywide prayer meetings, weekly house visitation, annual laymen's banquets, and seminars on personal evangelism.

The Crusade will cooperate in the Billy Graham Crusade scheduled for Southern California next summer.

Inquiries on the organization may be sent to Southern California Laymen's Crusade, 6608 Compton Blvd., Paramount.
